

Contents

ix	Acknowledgments
xi	Foreword M. Thomas Inge
3	Introduction Kim A. Munson
11	FOUNDATIONS: COMIC ART IN MUSEUMS
14	Comic Art in Museums: An Overview Denis Kitchen
23	Substance and Shadow: The Art of the Cartoon Brian Walker
33	Permanent Ink: Comic Book and Comic Strip Art as Aesthetic Object Andrei Molotiu
63	PIONEERS: COMIC ART EXHIBITIONS, 1930–1967
66	The Evolution of Comic Art Exhibitions, 1934–1951 Kim A. Munson
88	Narrative Illustration: The Story of the Comics M. C. Gaines
98	The First International: I Exposicao Internacional de Historias em Quadrinhos Alvaro de Moya
104	Comics and Figurative Narration: What Pierre Couperie Contributed Antoine Sausverd
113	THE RENEWED FOCUS ON COMICS AS ART AFTER 1970
120	The Comic Stripped and Ash Canned: A Review Essay Albert Boime
135	Exhibitions at the Museum of Cartoon Art: A Personal Recollection Brian Walker

- 152 Mort Walker, Historian
Cullen Murphy
- 155 Review/Art: Cartoon Masters—Cartoonists Finally Get Some Respect
Kenneth Baker
- 159 Comics, Community, and the ToonSeum: An Interview with Joe Wos
Kim A. Munson

167 EXPANDING VIEWS OF COMIC ART: TOPICS AND DISPLAY

- 170 Northern Ink: Misfit Lit in Minneapolis
Diana Green
- 175 Our Heroes: African American Artists and Images in the American Comic Book
Dwayne McDuffie
- 178 Deviating from "Art": Japanese Manga Exhibitions, 1990–2015
Jaqueline Berndt
- 192 The Glimmering Glow of Comic Art amidst the Blinding Glitter of the United Arab Emirates
John A. Lent
- 202 Hypercomics: The Shape of Comics to Come
Paul Gravett
- 207 Sequential Titillation: Comics Stripped at the Museum of Sex, New York
Craig Yoe

211 MASTERS OF HIGH AND LOW: EXHIBITIONS IN DIALOGUE

- 215 Comic Connoisseurs
David Deitcher
- 220 Comics as Art Criticism: The Cartoons of Jonah Kinigstein
Karen Green and Kim A. Munson
- 243 High Way Robbery
Michael Dooley
- 256 "High Art Lowdown": This Review Is Not Sponsored by AT&T
Art Spiegelman
- 257 How Low Can You Go?
John Carlin
- 259 Cracking the Comics Canon
Leslie Jones
- 264 An Uneasy Accord: LA Museums Open Their Walls to Comics as True Works of Art
Scott Timberg

271	Here Are the Great Women Comic Artists of the United States Trina Robbins
275	Remasters of American Comics: Sequential Art as New Media in the Transformative Museum Context Damian Duffy
289	PERSONAL STATEMENTS: EXHIBITIONS ABOUT INDIVIDUAL ARTISTS
295	After Masters : Interview with Gary Panter Kim A. Munson
297	Splashing Ink on Museum Walls: How Comic Art Is Conquering Galleries, Museums, and Public Spaces Rob Saikowitz
308	In Our Own Image, After Our Likeness Charles Hatfield
316	Showing Pages and Progress : Interview with Carol Tyler Kim A. Munson
324	Curating Comics Canons: Daniel Clowes and Art Spiegelman's Private Museums Benoit Crucifix
346	Co-Mix and Exhibitions: Interview with Art Spiegelman Kim A. Munson
356	Introduction to Comic Book Apocalypse: The Graphic World of Jack Kirby Charles Hatfield
361	Jack Kirby at Cal State Northridge Doug Harvey
365	Genius in a Box Alexi Worth
371	Thirty Museums with Regular Comics Programming
373	List of Contributors
383	Index