

Contents

List of Illustrations	vii
Notes on Contributors	ix
Acknowledgments	xii

Introduction

1 Comics and Religion in Liquid Modernity	3
Kees de Groot

Part 1 Comics in Religion

2 From Subordinates to Superheroes? Comics in Christian Magazines for Children and Youth in Norway	13
Irene Trysnes
3 Cancelling the Second Coming : Manufactured Christian Outrage Online	33
Evelina Lundmark
4 The Reception of Comics on Zoroastrianism	49
Paulina Niechciał

Part 2 Religion in Comics

5 Drawn into Krishna: Autobiography and Lived Religion in the Comics of Kaisa and Christoffer Leka	67
Andreas Häger and Ralf Kauranen
6 What Would Preacher Do? Tactics of Blasphemy in the Strategies of Satire and Parody	89
Michael J. Prince
7 Islam and Anxieties of Liberalism in Craig Thompson's Habibi	107
Kambiz GhaneaBassiri

Part 3 Comics as Religion?

- 8 Implicit Religion and Trauma Narratives in Maus and Watchmen 131
Ilaria Bianco
- 9 Manga Pilgrimages: Visualizing the Sacred/Sacralizing the Visual in Japanese Junrei 147
Mark MacWilliams
- 10 Comics and Meaning Making: Adult Comic Book Readers on What, Why, and How They Read 169
Sofia Sjö

Part 4 Learning from Comics

- 11 The Magic of the Multiverse: Easter Eggs, Superhuman Beings, and Metamodernism in Marvel's Story Worlds 187
Sissel Undheim
- 12 Comics and Religious Studies: Amar Chitra Katha as an Educational Comic Series 205
Line Reichelt Føreland
- 13 A Contract with God or a Social Contract? 219
Christophe Monnot

Conclusion

- 14 Comics as a Way of Doing, Encountering, and Making Religion 239
Kees de Groot

- Index 247