

Contents

Citation Information

Notes on Contributors

Foreword

David Huxley and Joan Ormrod

Introduction– Wonder Woman and the public humanities: a reflection on the 2016 Wonder Woman Symposium

Vera J. Camden and Valentino L. Zullo

Part I: On Wonder Woman

1 Wonder Woman, feminist Icon? Queer icon? No, love icon

Phil Jimenez

2 Wonder Woman 1987–1990: the Goddess, the Iron Maiden and the sacralisation of consumerism

Joan Ormrod

3 By Sappho’s Stylus! Reading Wonder Woman with Wertham

Carol Tilley

4 Wonder Woman: superheroine, not superhero

Peter Coogan

Part II: Wonder Woman’s Contemporaries

5 Babes in arms

Trina Robbins

6 Empire of a wicked woman: Catwoman, royalty, and the making of a comics icon

Genevieve Valentine

Part III: Interviews

7 Truth, justice, and the Amazonian way: an interview with Greg Rucka

Interviewers: Vera J. Camden and Valentino L. Zullo

8 Plain Dealing Women: Lois Lane and the Origin of the Comic Book Heroine—A Conversation with Laura Siegel Larson

Interviewer: Samantha Baskind

9 Wonder Woman symposium audience Q & A with Christie Marston

Christie Marston

Afterword: tales of wonder in dark times

Vera J. Camden and Valentino L. Zullo

Index