

CONTENTS

List of Figures	viii
List of Contributors	x
1 Introduction Harriet E.H. Earle and Martin Lund	1
PART 1
Identities	17
2 Outwitting the Flemish Past: Willy Vandersteen’s Dealing with Brabant Underdogs in Suske en Wiske ’s ‘Het Spaanse spook’ (1948–1950) Michel De Dobbeleer	19
3 Displacement, Space, and Questions of Belonging: German and Colombian Graphic Novels in Dialogue Felipe Gómez and Gabi Maier	39
4 Visual Aspects of Modern Greek Identity Ioanna Papaki	67
5 Mexico’s Conquest, Independence, and Revolution According to Rius Annick Pellegrin	89

PART 2

Radicalisms 107

- 6 Socialist Swedish Comics: Anticapitalism, International Solidarity and Whiteness in Johan Vilde and The Phantom 109
Robert Aman
- 7 Abandoning Ideals and Producing Graphic Disillusionment in Suomen suurin kommunisti 129
Oskari Rantala
- 8 Capitalism, Freedom, Future: Picture of Polish Transformation in the Graphic Novel Osiedle Swoboda 153
Wojciech Lewandowski
- 9 Dissent and Resistance in Contemporary Portuguese Comics: The Case of Buraco #4 and Porto's Es.Col.A. Movement 171
Pedro Moura

PART 3

Genders 185

- 10 How to Discuss Sexual Identity, Minority Rights, and Society in Chile?: The Case of Katherine Supnem's 'Underground' Comics 187
Mario Faust-Scalisi
- 11 Questioning the Inescapable Male Gaze in Altarriba and Kim's El arte de volar and El ala rota 201
Mikel Bermello Isusi
- 12 The Pirate, the Queen, and the Handkerchief: Gráinne Mhaol, an Irishwoman among Men 220
Christina M. Knopf

PART 4

Historiographics 237

- 13 Expressions of Subjectivity: Recent Historical Events Represented in Twenty-First-Century Chilean Autobiographical Comics 239
Paloma Domínguez Jeria and Mariana Muñoz

14	Punťa the Dog Goes to the Second Italo-Abyssinian War: Czech, Polish, and American Comic Heroes in the Real- World Conflict of 1935–1936 Lucie Kořínková and Pavel Kořínek	259
	Index	281