

Contents

List of figures

Acknowledgements

Introduction

Life narrative, testimony and witness

Looking elsewhere: graphic testimony and visual witness

Primary texts and graphic life narrative sub-genres

Aspects of injustice and suffering

In/visibilities

Decolonial theory, social justice and the decolonization of human rights

Chapter overview and a note on myth

- 1 Precarious femininities and gendered inequalities
Remediating the graphic tale of Philomela, (de)colonizing human rights
La Lucha: The game of neoliberal economy and coloniality in Juarez
(Post-)colonial encounters and sex work in the journal entries of *Burma*48
(Post-)colonial encounters and sex work in 'The Story of Mi-Su'
Spectacles of gendered violence in *Palestine*59
Coda
- 2 Graphic martyrria and male suffering
Hierarchies of masculinity, male suffering and graphic martyrria
Tortured male bodies, (graphic) art and literature
Male suffering off-scene in Palestine
Spectacles of male suffering in Vanni
The child soldiers of Sri Lanka and Burma
The Palestinian Shebab
Resistance
Coda
- 3 Graphic thanatopoetics and the in/visible spectacle of death
Thanatopolitics, graphic life narrative and the meditation on death
The Saigon Execution photograph in Thi Bui's The Best We Could Do
Femicide, social justice activism, and photographs of the dead in La Lucha
Picturing death in the journal entries of Juarez
Reconceptualizing death in 'La Tristeza'
Western reporting, thanatic temporalities and dead animals in Footnotes in Gaza

The tempo of dying in Palestine

Coda

4 Graphic topopoetics and spatial (in)justice

The spatial turn and spatial injustice in graphic life narrative

Mapping femicide: zooming out of, and in on, the gendered crimes of Juarez

Island landscapes of suffering and leisure: the heterotopias of Manus Island and Sri Lanka

The olive trees of Palestine

Spatial violence and irregular migration

Coda

5 Western borders, violence and ponos

Border ponos

Border monstrosities

Icons of (in)justice

The animal as witness at Western borders

Refugee resistance in Villawood and beyond

Coda

6 Final remarks on the implications of reading graphic life narratives and bearing witness to other people's distant suffering

References

Index